

INDIANA

TAX CONFERENCE

COMPETITIVENESS AND SIMPLIFICATION

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 2014

Tim Rushenberg

Panel: Sales and use tax

Biography

Tim Rushenberg is the Vice President of Governmental Affairs & Tax Policy of the Indiana Manufacturers Association. He is the former General Counsel and Commissioner of the Department of Local Government Finance under the Daniels administration. Most recently, Rushenberg served as President of SRI, Inc., in Indianapolis, which provides technology solutions for liquidating real property and collecting taxes on behalf of local governments. Previously, Rushenberg served on active duty in the U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General's Corps performing several duties, including as a military prosecutor and defense counsel.

Rushenberg is a Six Sigma Green Belt and has used those improvement tools to modernize antiquated government systems and propel business development efforts in public and private enterprises. He has ensured regulatory compliance for businesses, trade associations, and county and state governments. His areas of specialty include taxes and state and federal legislative matters.

Rushenberg received a B.A. in Political Science from Indiana University South Bend and a Juris Doctor, Law degree from Valparaiso University School of Law.